

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 224 – HB 1284

January 14, 2023

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the Commissioner of Human Services (Commissioner) to conduct a study on the impact of the availability of affordable child care on families with parents who work outside of the home, and to make recommendations on ways to make more options readily available and affordable. Requires the Commissioner to compile a report on the study and deliver it to the Chair of the Health and Welfare Committee of the Senate, the Chair of the Health Committee of the House of Representatives, and the Legislative Librarian, by December 31, 2023.

FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- Conducting the study, generating recommendations, and delivering a report, as put forth in the proposed legislation, can be accomplished within existing resources and personnel of the Department of Human Services, without a significant increase in state expenditures.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
